

GROUP LIFE INSURANCE

Information on our policy and how to file a claim

We recommend that you keep this document for your records and that you share a copy with the person you named as your life insurance beneficiary.

General Information on Our Policy:

- Group life insurance is offered by Amalgamated Life to NDWA dues paying members. The cost of the life insurance policy is included in NDWA membership dues. There is not a separate additional cost to members. If a member stops paying NDWA membership dues, she or he will cease to be eligible for the policy and will no longer have coverage under the group policy.
- The policy is a term life policy valued at $5,000 USD.
- NDWA members will need to identify a beneficiary of their policy, and provide the beneficiary's contact information, when joining NDWA membership. If you have not yet identified your beneficiary, we ask that you do so immediately by logging into your membership account at act.domesticworkers.org/a/memberportal
- In order to be eligible for group life insurance, the NDWA member must reside in the United States.
- The beneficiary named on the policy may reside anywhere, and is not limited to US residents (i.e. the person named by the member as the recipient of the policy funds may live within or outside of the US).

NDWA is able to provide life insurance to its dues-paying members at a significantly reduced rate because it is a group, not an individual, policy, which is why only dues-paying members of NDWA can access and receive this benefit. A portion of the dues collected from NDWA contributes to the funding to pay for the life insurance benefit.

To File a Claim:

In the case that a member passes away, NDWA must be notified via email to membership@domesticworkers.org. Please include the member's name, email or phone and your relationship with them. In order to file the life insurance claim, the beneficiary will also need the member's Social Security Number or ITIN. Please ensure your beneficiary has that information.
